ACCT11084 Accounting in professional practice

Term 1 - 2026

Profile information current as at 22/01/2025 08:40 pm

All details in this unit profile for ACCT11084 have been officially approved by CQU University and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

During this unit, you will apply the theoretical knowledge you attained in preceding units to a professional accounting work environment. This authentic practical experience will allow you to interact with accounting practitioners to further develop your technical skills and professional communication. You will be supervised by a professional accountant to complete tasks that make significant contributions to workplace accounting problems. As this is a 12 credit point unit, you will be expected to commit around 25 hours each week on these supervised tasks, which includes research, task activities, assessment activities and self-directed learning.
