Accreditation bodies no longer require invigilated exams, so we're replacing the invigilated exam with an online test. Additionally, following feedback from students like you, we've decided not to have invigilated exams at all. Instead, we'll be offering online tests for your convenience. This online test will be held during the Exam Week.

Schedule

Week 1 - 04 Mar 2024

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
The moral dimension of business	Chapter 1	In this module you will begin to explore the importance of ethics in business, as well as some of the moral or ethical codes we live by.

Week 2 - 11 Mar 2024

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
The study of ethics and its theories	Chapter 2	Welcome to the exploration of theories of ethics. The study of ethics has been under way for thousands of years. Moral philosophy was the first branch of philosophy started by the Greeks in 3rd century BC. Its come a long way since then!

Week 3 - 18 Mar 2024

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
Corporate governance and business ethics	Chapter 5	In this module you will begin to appreciate the central role of good corporate governance in creating and maintaining an ethical organisation. We will focus especially on the board of directors and how they maintain transparency, accountability and control throughout the organisation.

Week 4 - 25 Mar 2024

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
Corporate social responsibility	Chapter 4	In module you will begin to investigate the broad and narrow views of corporate social responsibility (CSR). CSR is a big issue in today's world of business and it is something you should have an understanding of. Do you think that a company should just focus on making money for its shareholders, or do you think it should make society its main focus? These are important and interesting questions to consider.

Week 5 - 01 Apr 2024

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
The ethics of consumption	Chapter 6	In module 5 you will begin to investigate the issues involved in having a consumer society. What are the responsibilities of businesses, the regulators and us, the consumers? What are the ethics of marketing campaigns that keep telling us that we need more "stuff"? You will find this an interesting and highly relevant topic.

Vacation Week - 08 Apr 2024

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
--------------	---------	------------------------------

Week 6 - 15 Apr 2024

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
Ethics and international business	Chapter 7	In module 6 you will begin to realise the ethical pressures and dilemmas inherent in doing business across countries and cultures. The multinational corporations often get a lot of criticism, but it is a very difficult business model to get right when your stakeholders are so culturally diverse. You will find the discussion on cultural relativism vs moral absolutism very interesting. Group Presentation (10%) Due: Week 6 Friday (19 Apr 2024) 11:55 pm AEST

Week 7 - 22 Apr 2024

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
Business ethics and the environment	Chapter 8	In module 7 we consider the impact and responsibilities of business to the environment. When you consider the issues of global warming, rising sea levels, air pollution, land clearing and declining water quality, then you must realise that these are the great problems of our time. For example, should Australia continue to mine coal, or should we be more mindful of the predicament of our neighbours in the Pacific?

Week 8 - 29 Apr 2024

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
The ethics of the organisation	Chapter 9	You will begin by looking at the employment relationship, and the rights and responsibilities of both the employer and employee. Can you be sacked for bagging your boss on Facebook? Yep, you can. Want to know more?

Week 9 - 06 May 2024

--------------	---------	------------------------------

In this module you will continue to explore current ethical issues in the workplace. What is informed consent? When is it needed? When is a gift not a bribe? What should you do if you are considering blowing the whistle?

Individual Written Assessment (30%) Due: Week 9 Friday (10 May 2024) 11:55 pm AEST

Ethics in the workplace Chapter 10

Week 10 - 13 May 2024

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
Ethics, leadership and culture	Chapter 11	Module 10 is all about the interaction between ethics, culture and leadership. This is quite a dynamic mix and you can imagine the impact on the workplace of ethical leaders, just as you can imagine the impact of leaders with low character. Hint: try to avoid those if you can.

Week 11 - 20 May 2024

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
Ethical decision-making	Chapter 12 plus material in you e-reading list.	Module 11 provides insights into some internationally accepted models for ethical decision-making, especially the American Accounting Association (AAA) model. Ethical decision-making is also contrasted with ordinary, or common decision-making. You will find this module very useful for your professional life.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
