ACCT20072 Accounting Systems and Information Assurance

Term 1 - 2025

Profile information current as at 05/09/2024 01:43 pm

All details in this unit profile for ACCT20072 have been officially approved by CQU University and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

Given the pervasive nature of Accounting Information Systems and Technology, accountants are increasingly expected to be competent in understanding the business processes and information systems used in organisations. This unit seeks to empower you with the essential skills and knowledge needed to successfully understand and use Accounting Information Systems throughout your career. There are two components. First, you will develop knowledge in accounting systems and business processes, basic system documentation tools, database management, fraud, appropriate internal controls, and approaches to implementing Accounting Information Systems in organisations. Second, you will develop technical competence in using productivity tools (such as MS Excel) and accounting software.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback

Final examination

Recommendation

Student was unhappy that final examination was invigilated and had to travel to write the paper. From T2 2024, there are no longer invigilated examinations in ACCT20072.

Student had issues understanding some concepts in the class materials and the language used

Recommendation

All teaching staff have been asked to get feedback from students regarding their understanding of the material and to provide further explanation of concepts. This is a technical subject and may have caused difficulty.

Final examination guidance

Recommendation

Although examination guidance was provided in week 12 and forum posts, students wanted more detailed feedback. Going forward, there will no longer be final examinations in this unit, however, students will be provided detailed guidance on assessment items.
