General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will learn the fundamentals of livestock production by gaining exposure to a range of extensive and intensive livestock production systems. You will learn about livestock anatomy, nutrition, health, welfare, management and markets, and enhance your knowledge on current issues, innovations and new and emerging opportunities for precision livestock management. As a foundation unit, the learning outcomes will provide you with the necessary knowledge for future units in the Bachelor of Agriculture.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE

The residential school was a highlight of the unit.

Recommendation

Continue to ensure that the residential school provides new and unique opportunities to students across a number of industries. Maintain livestock facilities at CQIRP to be able to provide hands-on livestock experiences.

Feedback from SUTE

The teaching environment was so wonderful and open.

Recommendation

Continue to ensure that there are clear expectations set and the chance for students to have open discussions and new opportunities.
