AVAT11009 Principles and Practice of Aviation Law and Policy Term 2 - 2024

Profile information current as at 19/05/2024 08:13 am

All details in this unit profile for AVAT11009 have been officially approved by CQU University and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will learn about the national aviation rules that protect individual countries and how airlines can operate globally within the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) rules. You will learn about the regulatory structure of civil aviation and the legal system within which this regulatory system operates and the powers, responsibilities, and scope of the various aviation regulatory authorities at the national and international levels. You will learn about when and where the various legal jurisdictions apply for international flights and the laws that apply to international flights operating domestically in other countries. You will study legal frameworks to investigate international airlines breaking the national laws of a foreign country and what legal instruments are available to prohibit foreign airlines from operating in a country's airspace.

Assessment Overview

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.
