General Information

Overview

This unit provides you with the opportunity to further develop the professional skills that support safe and effective flight operations. Through a focus on leadership, ethical conduct, cultural competency, and interpersonal communication, you will gain a deeper understanding of how these attributes contribute to effective teamwork and decision-making. The unit will also explore the integration of technical knowledge and professional skills within effective Crew Resource Management (CRM), emphasising sound decision-making and effective teamwork. As part of this unit, you will reflect on your development as a pilot, identifying personal strengths, limitations, and areas for growth to support your career development as a capable, reflective professional pilot. You will also prepare a roadmap for your career in aviation, including preparation to enter the industry.
