BLCN29002 Construction Land Planning and Building Legislation

Term 1 - 2027

Profile information current as at 04/09/2026 05:54 pm

All details in this unit profile for BLCN29002 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In Construction Land Planning and Building Legislation, you will be introduced to the general requirements of statutory legislation, standards and codes related to land use planning and construction. You will learn about the connection between planning legislation and building legislation. You will identify and describe the difference between prescriptive and performance-based statutory instruments and how these forms of legislation are applied in the construction industry. You will examine the legal connection between the National Construction Code (NCC) and the requirement for compliance with the referenced Australian Standards. Relevant Australian Standards will be reviewed to develop a complete understanding of the legal obligations required to achieve compliance under building legislation, standards and codes.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Evaluations

Feedback

Students suggested having more engagement in class.

Recommendation

Student interaction would be improved by asking more tutorial questions during class, so they have clearer unit requirements.

Feedback from Discussions with students in lectures

Students requested sample quiz questions.

Recommendation

A database of related bank of questions for practice after each workshop will be provided to students so they have a better idea of the assessment requirements.

Feedback

Content needs more clarification.

Recommendation

The course content will be updated with the latest NCC standards, and more examples will be added to improve students' understanding.
