General Information

Overview

This is a practical based unit designed to develop your awareness of on-site behaviour, activities, and procedures associated with inspections for both the building development and regulatory control processes for all classes of buildings defined in the Building Code of Australia. It will develop an understanding of the role and responsibilities of the inspecting officer and the legal rights and obligations of all parties.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from The Student Unit Teaching Evaluations T2- 2023

The subject content was understandable and readable as far as building surveying related.

Recommendation

The same content will be included and updated based on new knowledge of the current practice.

Feedback from The Student Unit Teaching Evaluations T2- 2023

Feedback

When reviewing the National Construction Code (NCC) and it's Deemed to Satisfy (DtS) provisions, provide a bit more clarification on their intent and how they are implemented in real-world examples.

Recommendation

The lecturer will be advised to clarify the intent of DtS provisions and provide examples of possible applications.
