General Information

Overview

As a health care professional, you may encounter clients whose mental health challenges impact upon their daily lives. In this unit you will develop knowledge that will assist in your recognition of mental health disorders as a health care professional, and learn about the appropriate referral networks and therapeutic options that are available to deal with these issues. Your ability to communicate effectively with clients, with consideration and awareness of their different cultural backgrounds and beliefs, will be developed as part of this unit.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE

Some students felt that more clarity and guidance for the essay assessment task would have benefited their learning experience.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the unit coordinator provide additional clarity and guidance to students preparing their essay assessment task.

Feedback from SUTE

Feedback

Some students were unsure of the relevance and value of mental health literacy and how it would translate to a clinical context.

Recommendation

It is recommended that additional problem-based learning be introduced to assist students to understand the relevance of this topic to their future practice.
