BMSC12003 Haematology and Transfusion Science

Term 2 - 2026

Profile information current as at 23/01/2025 12:36 pm

All details in this unit profile for BMSC12003 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to discuss fundamentals of haematology and transfusion science, including erythrocyte, leukocyte, reticulocyte and platelet morphology, enumeration and function. Skills in enumeration of blood cells and tests of haematological function will be developed during practical exercises. You will learn to contrast normal blood cell function with disorders of haemostasis affecting blood clotting and iron metabolism affecting blood cell numbers.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE

Feedback

Students were satisfied with the presentation and explanation of topics, especially in relation to assessments.

Recommendation

Continue to spend time explaining content thoroughly and offer time for Q&A in tutorials for further discussions and explanations.

Feedback from SUTE

Students found the 'Kahoot' application helped them engage with their studies and revise the content.

Recommendation

Continue to provide revision activities using applications such as 'Kahoot'.

Feedback from Student feedback at Residential school

Feedback

Some students felt more direction was needed on how to be efficient in their learning of the weekly material.

Recommendation

Review content to include more interactive clinical case studies for discussion to assist with learning the weekly content.

Feedback

Students felt more morphology exposure was required prior to attending residential school.

Recommendation

Begin morphology sessions early in the term to improve students knowledge and experience before they get to residential school.
