CHIR13007 Clinical Assessment and Diagnosis 3

Term 2 - 2024

Profile information current as at 19/05/2024 09:13 am

All details in this unit profile for CHIR13007 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit builds on other pathology related units in the course, as well as Clinical Assessment and Diagnosis 1. You will study non-musculoskeletal patient presentations, starting from the point of first contact with the patient, through history taking and physical examination, and finally to the formulation of a diagnosis. Through this process, you will also continue to develop your knowledge of common pathologies of each body system. By the end of the unit, your problem solving, analytical and critical thinking skills will have improved.

Assessment Overview

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE and in person

Feedback

The students felt that learning the theory (CHIR13010) in term 1 and the practical in term 2 (CHIR13007) was not ideal. They would have preferred the theory and practical content to be delivered simultaneously.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the discipline explore opportunities to better integrate theoretical and practical components of CHIR13010 and CHIR13007.

Feedback from Email and in person

Feedback

The students enjoyed the tutorial class layout and structure of embedding the vitals at the start every week.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the Unit Coordinator continue the tutorial structure for the next offering.

Feedback from SUTE and in person

Feedback

The students enjoyed the videos that accompanied the practical components to the subject, however they have requested updated videos with a full routine included.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the Unit Coordinator create new video content for the practical skills element as well as routines for each bodily system.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Integrate your knowledge of anatomy, physiology, biochemistry and pathology with the clinical assessment of disease states
2. Explain the pathophysiological basis for a range of symptoms and signs
3. Demonstrate competent history taking skills and physical examination procedures
4. Develop a differential diagnosis based on history and examination findings
5. Apply the appropriate examination protocol to pathological disease states.
