COIT11240 Dashboard Design and Visualisation Term 2 - 2027

Profile information current as at 12/09/2026 08:13 am

All details in this unit profile for COIT11240 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

While organisations can collect a large amount of data about their operations, a continual challenge they face is extracting useful information from that data. Dashboards summarise key information using visualisations and interactive reports. Dashboards are therefore an important tool in supporting decision making in an organisation. In this unit, you will learn how to design dashboards. You will develop skills to condense and encapsulate the characteristics of data, making it easier to analyse trends to drive effective decision-making. You will also learn creative ways to present the insights and findings of data using data visualisation tools and techniques.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Unit Coordinator's Reflection

Feedback

A stronger theoretical background on dashboard design and analysis is required.

Recommendation

Include more theory-based content on dashboard design and analysis to strengthen students' understanding of core principles.

Feedback from Student Unit Evaluation

Feedback

Lack of full access to the Microsoft Power BI Service limited practical learning.

Recommendation

Provide students with full access to the Microsoft Power BI Service or a similar environment to support hands-on learning and project development.
