COIT20262 Advanced Network Security

Term 2 - 2025

Profile information current as at 05/09/2024 02:14 pm

All details in this unit profile for COIT20262 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will learn how to protect the confidentiality, integrity and availability of information and network services in business organisations. You will study the fundamental cryptographic techniques that many of the security mechanisms are built upon. You will also study network security attacks, including malware, denial of service, and application vulnerabilities, and the corresponding countermeasures. Through computer laboratory activities, you will gain hands-on experience in analysing attacks and deploying defences, including securing web applications, establishing access control mechanisms, and applying encryption in wired and wireless networks.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student emails

Feedback

Virtual Box was difficult to use on the latest Mac version.

Recommendation

Make it clear that Windows is the only environment supported by the teaching team as the computer labs only have Windows. Explore the possibility of migration to the cloud environment from VirtualBox.

Feedback from Teaching team

Feedback

Update the assessments to improve the complex computing coverage.

Recommendation

Review the assessments and update it with more open-ended and analytical questions.
