ENEM13015 Design of Machine Elements

Term 2 - 2027

Profile information current as at 09/09/2026 05:05 am

All details in this unit profile for ENEM13015 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit aims to integrate and apply prior knowledge in engineering materials, structural mechanics, engineering statics and dynamics, and fundamental engineering design to analyse, synthesise and predict the performance of machine components and assemblies according to Australian and International Standards and design codes. You will acquire theoretical knowledge of variable and fatigue loading and failure theories as applied to ductile and brittle materials. You will also understand load carriage and power transmission performance of dynamic machine components.

Details

Career Level: Undergraduate

Unit Level: Level 3

Credit Points: 6

Student Contribution Band: 8

Fraction of Full-Time Student Load: 0.125

Pre-requisites or Co-requisites

Prerequisites: ENEM12009 Structural Mechanics, ENEX13003 Mechanical Design Practice.

Important note: Students enrolled in a subsequent unit who failed their pre-requisite unit, should drop the subsequent unit before the census date or within 10 working days of Fail grade notification. Students who do not drop the unit in this timeframe cannot later drop the unit without academic and financial liability. See details in the Assessment Policy and Procedure \(Higher Education Coursework\).

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Informal student feedback

Feedback

Distance students find it difficult to undertake group assessment in the unit due to work commitments.

Recommendation

UC should consider changing the group assessment to an individual applied project type of assessment.
