General Information

Overview

In this foundation level unit you will develop the academic study and research skills necessary for success in tertiary level education. You will learn about qualitative and quantitative research, using research databases to access peer-reviewed scientific literature, and appraise the quality of evidence presented in peer-reviewed scientific literature. You will also learn about research ethics and integrity, and develop a foundational understanding of the use of statistics in research. Additionally, you will learn fundamental concepts of scientific writing and referencing to ensure you can articulate the information you retrieve and appraise, in a clear, concise, and appropriate manner.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student Unit Evaluations

It was difficult to determine what was expected for the Written Assessment, in particular Part B.

Recommendation

It is recommended that time be set aside during a tutorial session to discuss the expectations for Part B of the Written Assessment, alongside an exemplar.

Feedback from Email

Feedback

Assessment feedback was effective in making improvements

Recommendation

It is recommended that specific and direct feedback continue to be used for Written Assessment Part A, to ensure students can apply feedback for Part B.
