Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Personal reflection.

Feedback

Moodle forums remain under utilised by students as a form of student communication and interaction.

Recommendation

It is recommended to continue to pursue strategies including consultation with colleagues on how to increase student engagement through the forums.

Feedback from Student discussion.

Feedback

Work Integrated Learning is well organised and supported with easy to understand resources.

Recommendation

It is recommended to continue streamlining the Work Integrated Learning process for improved understanding of student and placement supervisor expectations.

Feedback from SUTE survey.

Feedback

There were some aspects of the AI-based assessment that were confusing and lacked clarity of purpose in relation to the unit.

Recommendation

It is recommended to improve the clarity of the AI-based assessment including the requirements and purpose to improve student's understanding.
