Term 1 - 2025

Profile information current as at 26/03/2025 05:36 am

All details in this unit profile for HIST11037 have been officially approved by CQU University and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

Dawn of Humanity: An Introduction to World History provides an overview of world history to c.1500 CE. In this unit you will examine early human societies from around the world and the rise of empires in this broad period. Areas of study include ancient Egypt, India, China, Greece, Rome, the Islamic world, Japan, and Meso-America. Students will be introduced to the political, economic, social and cultural aspects of these societies and the historical interactions between them. You will gain a preliminary understanding of historical methods and how to interpret and analyse historical evidence. You will develop both discipline-specific and generic skills. You will require a computer and internet access to complete some assessment for this unit. Together with the optional sequel, The Modern World Emerges: An Historical Overview, Dawn of Humanity: An Introduction to World History provides you with a firm foundation for more specialised history studies offered at CQU.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

You may wish to view these policies:

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student Unit Teacher Evaluations

Feedback

Clarify expectations for assessment tasks

Recommendation

Revise the assessment descriptions, criteria and marking rubrics to clarify expectations for students.

Feedback from Student Unit Teacher Evaluations

Feedback

Revise and streamline learning resources

Recommendation

Revise and update learning resources to reflect the current state of the field in ancient and world history. Furthermore, clarify expectations regarding what are considered essential reading materials for weekly discussions as against supplementary learning resources that are included as aids for assessment tasks.

Feedback from Student Unit Teacher Evaluations, Informal Student Feedback and Teaching Staff Evaluation

Feedback

Co-designed assessment and conference

Recommendation

Refine the co-designed oral presentation assessment task that is delivered as part of a student led conference. The inaugural 'dawn of humanity' conference hosted at the Rockhampton North campus and featuring hybrid modes of delivery was well received by students, staff and community members. This assessment and corresponding conference will be planned with the benefit of experience from 2024. Furthermore, students who formed the organising committee from the 2024 cohort have committed to helping the 2025 organising committee with the conference planning.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. demonstrate a broad knowledge of the political, economic, social and cultural history of major world empires and societies and their interactions from pre-history to 1500CE (AD1500).
2. critically apply an unprejudiced understanding of the differing worldviews of these cultures and an acceptance of others' informed opinions.
3. recognise key historical problems of the period and be able to present evidence-backed solutions to these problems.
4. develop essential skills for historians including the ability to locate and analyse historical evidence and the ability to communicate findings in an academic manner.

Assessment Tasks

1 Source review

Assessment Type

Essay

Task Description

Students are required to produce a source review document that demonstrates critical engagement with a total of 5 scholarly sources chosen from a selection of learning materials available on the Moodle site in the assessment tile for this task. Each source requires 5 annotations, with the format of the document detailed in the supplementary material for this assessment task on the Moodle site. The purpose of this assessment task is to provide the research foundation for the essay.

The total word count for the source review document is 1750 words (+ or - 10%). This total is comprised of approximately 350 words of reflection per scholarly source.

This assessment task is worth 35% of the total grade.

Further details on this assessment are included in the Moodle site and guidelines for how to approach the task will be discussed at length in seminar 1 as well as in learning resources made available on the Moodle site in the assessment tile for this task.

Use of Generative Artificial Intelligence agents (Gen AI)

Within this assessment, the use of Gen AI agents is acceptable in the following ways only:

- Gen AI content is used to generate ideas and general structures.
- Gen AI can be used for content editing.
- Gen AI content generation for you to critique and review.

Assessment Due Date

Assessment Criteria

The source review document will be evaluated according to the following criteria:

1. Comprehension - has the student demonstrated comprehension of the key thesis articulated in the article as evident in their choice of quotations?
2. Critical engagement - has the student engaged critically with the key claims in the article as evident in their annotations attached to at least 5 quotations per journal article?
3. Clarity of exposition - has the student exercised discretion in their choice of quotations as evident in the concise and succinct annotation attached to the quote?

2 Essay

Assessment Type

Essay

Task Description

The questions for the essay are available on the HIST11037 Moodle site. You are required to choose ONE question and write an essay in response of 2000 words (a variation of 10% is acceptable in the word count).

Students are expected to follow the essay-writing and Turabian referencing guides provided in Moodle, in addition to the format and style of the sample essay. 2 weeks of essay workshops in weeks 6 and 7 are designated for class discussion whereby the research material furnished by the annotated bibliography is considered alongside essay writing techniques so as to inform the preparation of the essay.

This essay will be graded on the CREW principle (Content, Research, and Essay Writing) which is elaborated in detail on the Moodle site in the assessment tile for this task.

Use of Generative Artificial Intelligence agents (Gen AI)

Within this assessment, the use of Gen AI agents is acceptable in the following ways only:

Return Date to Students

Week 10 Wednesday (21 May 2025)

Essays will be marked and returned within two weeks of the date they are submitted to the Moodle site.

Weighting

40%

Assessment Criteria

The essays are marked on a three principle criteria that can be summarised as CREW. This stands for: Content, Research, and Essay Writing.

Content:

- presentation of accurate, relevant and unbiased historical evidence
- evidence that the relevant(s) lecture has been listened to

Research (and referencing):

- evidence drawn primarily from scholarly texts
- acknowledgement of all sources of ideas/evidence (footnote) and any quotations (footnote and quote marks)
- correct use of the Turabian referencing style

Essay Writing:

- meeting the required number of words, the bulk of which should be own wording
- logical structure/organisation of ideas
- clear, concise and correct written English
- presentation in formal essay style and layout

3 Oral presentation

Assessment Type

Online Quiz(zes)

Task Description

Students are required to deliver an oral presentation of no more than 5 minutes responding to ONE of the questions included in a list available in the assessment tile on the Moodle site for this unit. The presentations may be delivered synchronously or asynchronously as part of the "Dawn of Humanity" annual conference to be held during week 12.

15% of the grade is determined by the quality of the presentation assessed according to the following criteria:

1. Clarity - how clearly have the ideas that inform the argument articulated in the presentation been expressed?
2. Coherence - the presentation should entail at least 3 key points that relate to a key thesis, which is to be developed iteratively over the course of the presentation. This assessment criteria evaluates the extent to which the thesis and the 3 key points are logically consistent and coherent.
3. Concision - has the presentation articulated a coherent thesis, constituted by at least 3 key points, using precise language and in an engaging manner with brevity.

The remaining 10% of the grade is to be awarded to students on the basis of their participation in the "Dawn of Humanities" conference. Participation is assessed by the unit coordinator based on a range of activities associated with conference organising and peer review during the conference.

The total 25% grade will be assessed during the conference week and released to students by 5pm AEST Friday 13 June 2025.

Use of Generative Artificial Intelligence agents (Gen AI)

Within this assessment, the use of Gen AI agents is acceptable in the following ways only:

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
