HLTH12028 Health Promotion Strategies

Term 2 - 2027

Profile information current as at 09/09/2026 11:35 am

All details in this unit profile for HLTH12028 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit builds on the student's understanding of health promotion by focusing on best practice strategies. These strategies will cover a range of circumstances and settings, including brief individual interventions to the development of national health promotion policy. It is recognised that effective health promotion initiatives generally use a combination of strategies and skills that are founded on theory and research.

Offerings For Term 2 - 2027

- Online

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback

Feedback

More flexible timetabling of online classes to encourage higher attendance.

Recommendation

As many students are out on placement during T2, a more flexible rolling schedule of online classes will be added to help students attend more of the live sessions.

Feedback

Students also identified areas for improvement, particularly around the clarity of assessment expectations, and the timing of Moodle coursework across the term.

Recommendation

Based on this feedback, improvements will be introduced for the next offering of the unit, including: Assessment instructions and marking criteria will be refined to provide clearer expectations. This includes annotated exemplars, improved scaffolding, and more explicit explanations of what constitutes higher-level responses. Improved pacing of workload: Weekly Moodle content and assessment timelines will be reviewed to ensure a more even distribution of workload and to reduce pressure points later in the term.
