General Information

Overview

In this unit you examine First Nations cultures and their relationships with Country and Land (Country and Land is capitalised to reflect the differing meaning for First Nations cultures and knowledge systems). You will learn and draw on First Nations and Western scholarship to explore differing cultural concepts of Land: culture and Country. You will develop your understanding of First Nations beliefs, value and knowledge systems. You will learn the importance and use of theory from colonialism, settler colonialism, decolonisation and the cultural interface to deepen your understandings of First Nations cultures and country. You will gain an awareness of the complexity of the connection First Nations peoples have to Country.
