General Information

Overview

Lawyers engage in legal drafting on a daily basis and effective written communication skills are essential for legal practice. The unit focuses on the foundational principles for drafting legal documents to prepare you for the significant and diverse range of tasks you may face as a legal practitioner. This unit aims to enhance your legal drafting skills by providing you with an authentic practical learning experience. You will complete a variety of practical drafting tasks that newly qualified lawyers are likely to undertake in practice, such as drafting pleadings, affidavits, contracts and letters of advice.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Tutor reflection, comments from students in their reflective portfolios

Students benefitted from the peer review/collaboration process in the second half of the unit and this helped strengthen the 'drafting community'

Recommendation

Include a peer review/collaboration exercise in the first half of the term to further strengthen the 'drafting community'.

Even though the drafting portfolio should be completed weekly, some students were not completing it until shortly before the deadline in week 12, which impacted on the quality and the progression of their drafting skills

Recommendation

Explore whether the drafting portfolio could be submitted on a weekly/fortnightly basis or in two parts to ensure students complete their portfolios over the course of the term.
