General Information

Overview

This unit examines issues in Succession Law in Queensland. It covers the principles and practice relating to enduring powers of attorney, wills, testamentary capacity, intestacy, the administration of an estate (both testate and intestate) and family provision applications. Emphasis is placed on the importance of the relevant legislation, court decisions and statutory procedures to succession law practice and the unit offers insight into many of the practical aspects of practising in this area through authentic assessment tasks.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Emails, student comments in class

Feedback

Students were given 1 week to complete a written assignment, which caused confusion for some students who believed it was a take home paper

Recommendation

Review whether the final assessment should take place under take home paper conditions or whether a written assessment should be available for a longer period of time.
