Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback, quality of submissions and discussion in the workshop.

Feedback

Students undertaking this unit show an interest in taxation law and this is reflected in the quality of their assessment submissions as well as active involvement in the online workshop. Students appreciated the practical perspective on each area of taxation law covered. There was a constant emphasis on the need to understand certain aspects of taxation law that a graduate would be exposed to in practice if employed in the public accounting environment.

Recommendation

Maintain updated changes to the taxation law each year.
