General Information

Overview

The study of poetry, from the Romantics to contemporary slam poetry, offers a rich exploration of how human expression has evolved through language, form, and performance across centuries. This journey takes you from classic love sonnets to modern spoken word, showing how society and culture shape the way we express ourselves through verse. The aim of this unit is to introduce you to practical skills in understanding poetry and communicating your understanding to others. You'll learn to analyse poetry and appreciate its history and various forms while developing valuable skills in critical thinking and creative expression that you can use in any career path.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from UC reflection and student performance data

Clarity of assessment expectations and scaffolding

Recommendation

Continue refining the scaffolding of assessments and ensure expectations are clearly communicated by the Unit Coordinator to students and any external markers. This will support consistency in marking and help maintain strong student outcomes.

Feedback from Student Unit Evaluation data

Volume of weekly content

Recommendation

Review the volume of content provided each week to ensure it remains accessible and manageable. While the unit's scope is intentionally ambitious, care should be taken to present expansive topics in a way that supports student engagement and avoids cognitive overload.
