General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will examine the role and scope of the midwife and the legal and ethical frameworks that guide professional midwifery practice. You will explore the philosophical and historical foundations of the midwifery profession, including key social and cultural discourses that influence women's choices and decision-making about their maternity care. A critical focus will be placed on legal and ethical standards, including the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia (NMBA) Midwife Standards for Practice and Code of Conduct for Midwives, the International Confederation of Midwives (ICM) International Code of Ethics for Midwives, and relevant Australian legislation. In addition, the unit will introduce you to the structure of Australian maternity services, various models of midwifery care, and the principles of inclusive and culturally safe practice.
