MEDI12006 Imaging Procedures 2

Term 2 - 2026

Profile information current as at 23/02/2025 04:56 pm

All details in this unit profile for MEDI12006 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

Imaging Procedures 2 will build upon your foundation knowledge and skills developed in Imaging Procedures 1. On completion of this unit, you should be able to perform routine radiographic examinations of the axial and appendicular skeleton, chest, abdomen and craniofacial structures. You will expand your image assessment and interpretation skills to radiography of the axial skeleton. You will be introduced to additional areas of radiographic practice, including mammography, bone mineral densitometry and mobile x-ray imaging. This unit includes a large element of clinical simulation to enhance readiness for clinical placement.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback

Use of 2 minute warning timer in practical assessments was appreciated and helped students manage their time.

Recommendation

Investigate the feasibility of including a 2 minute warning timer for all practical assessments.

Feedback from Staff observation.

Feedback

Students were not utilising the full 1.5 hours of weekly independent practice labs, with some students leaving after as little as 30 minutes.

Recommendation

Reiterate to students the importance of the weekly independent practice labs to consolidate learning and to prepare for practical assessment tasks.

Feedback from Student feedback, Unit Coordinator reflection.

Feedback

Some students did not appear to understand the accreditation requirements within assessment tasks.

Recommendation

Emphasise to the students that the assessment tasks are aligned with the professional standards set by the registration body as part of accreditation requirements.
