MEDS12001 Physics of Ultrasound

Term 1 - 2025

Profile information current as at 05/09/2024 01:43 pm

All details in this unit profile for MEDS12001 have been officially approved by CQU University and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will be introduced to the principles of ultrasound physics and instrumentation. Ultrasound safety, quality assurance and recognition of artifacts will also be covered. The knowledge and skills learnt from this unit are integral to all concurrent and subsequent sonography and echocardiography units and forms the foundation from which you will build your image acquisition, recognition and assessment skills. You will apply your knowledge and skills of physics principles in the laboratory setting using ultrasound equipment.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE Teacher Evaluations

Feedback

Some students found that it was difficult to remain engaged during tutorials, as Physics is quite dense.

Recommendation

Construct online quizzes such as Kahoot during tutorials to encourage interaction and engagement.

Feedback from MEDS12001 Q&A forum

Feedback

Some of the older lectures have poor audio quality and are blurry when using different platforms.

Recommendation

Replace older lectures as the audio tends to distort when the volume is too high.

Feedback from MEDS12001 Q&A forum

Feedback

The final Lab session is too rushed.

Recommendation

Some content from Lab 3 can be transferred to Lab 2.
