Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE student feedback

Feedback

The lecturer created a very inclusive environment

Recommendation

Drawing on lived experience of students provides an effective link to discussion of business concepts.

Valuable feedback was provided on written work

Recommendation

Significant effort is provided with constructive feedback at three levels: in the submission, through the rubric evaluation, and in developmental comments uploaded through Feedback Studio.

Lectures and workshop discussions really connected the content to real-world applications

Recommendation

Applying conceptual frameworks to understand what is being published in business media provides an ongoing opportunity to track and analyse the impact of management decisions on business performance.

Teaching strategies were very effective and exceeded the standards I expected.

Recommendation

The great conceptual thinkers in business academia develop their insights from researching business practices. Unpacking the conceptual frameworks in real-world contexts adds great depth to workshop discussions.
