

MUSC12412 Principal Music Studios 4

Term 2 - 2024

Profile information current as at 29/07/2024 03:30 pm

All details in this unit profile for MUSC12412 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

While studying the Principal Music Studios series of units you will undertake a series of developmental practical music studies relating to your primary study area. In Principal Music Studios 4, you will continue your practical music studies in one instrument, voice or composition, focusing on intermediate level repertoire and technical work. These practical studies will be underpinned by your ability to demonstrate personal and professional skills necessary for your profession, such as punctuality and preparedness for each of your lessons, consistent attendance and thorough personal practice, and a mature response to direction. You are expected to demonstrate cumulative levels of skill and knowledge through this series of units.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Term Specific Information

Unit Structure

- The unit comprises 12 hours of dedicated instruction, including individual lessons and collaborative group Masterclasses with our expert staff.

Masterclass Focus Areas

The two Masterclasses will cover essential topics, including:

- Understanding Unit Requirements: Clarifying expectations and objectives to help you navigate the course successfully.
- Personal Practice Routines: Establishing effective practice habits tailored to your individual needs.
- Time Management Strategies: Learning to balance practice, study, and personal commitments efficiently.
- Confidence Building: Developing techniques to boost your confidence in performance settings.
- Health and Wellbeing: Emphasising the importance of physical and mental health in sustaining a long-term music career.
- Exam Preparation

Assessment Tasks

1 Technical Assessment

Assessment Type

Practical Assessment

Task Description

The technical assessment evaluates the practical study and application of technical aspects in your individual development as instrumentalists, vocalists or composers. This assessment focuses on acquiring technique and musicianship skills, encompassing a range of technical materials relating to scales/modes, arpeggios/chords, etudes/studies, comping exercises, sight reading, rudiments, and the application of compositional devices and elements. Students will study a curriculum for this assessment, which will be individually designed by the tutor and communicated by the Unit Coordinator.

- Vocalists and instrumentalists will present this assessment as part of an in-class test.
- Composers present this assessment item as a portfolio of work relating to the specific technical tasks developed throughout the term.

Assessment Due Date

Week 10 Friday (20 Sept 2024) 11:45 pm AEST

It is expected that technical assessments take place on the same day/time as your weekly scheduled lesson.

Return Date to Students

Week 12

Weighting

40%

Assessment Criteria

Students will be assessed on a combination of criteria relating to the development of musical and technical skills as applied to their instrument and genre of study. The criteria may include the assessment of:

- Technical Proficiency: Students will demonstrate the application of technical elements, including accuracy of pitch and intonation, agility/dexterity, and fluency, in the performance or notation of assigned scales/modes, arpeggios/chords, etudes/studies, comping exercises, sight reading or rudiments, relevant to their chosen instrument, voice or composition.
- Articulation and Phrasing: Students will demonstrate command and stylistic application of articulation techniques, as well as an understanding and execution of appropriate phrasing within the assigned practical technical materials or compositional works.
- Tone Production: Students will produce a quality tone or vocal sound, displaying aspects such as breath control, vocal resonance, instrumental tone control, and consistency of tone across different registers. For composers, students will demonstrate an understanding and use of timbre and instrumentation in their compositions.
- Rhythmic Accuracy: Students will display precision and rhythmic control in performing the assigned technical materials. Composers will demonstrate precision and accuracy in the notation of rhythmic patterns and devices relative to their compositional works.
- Composition Analysis: Students will demonstrate their knowledge of composition structure, melodic content, harmony, rhythm, instrumentation, texture and phrasing through a variety of analytical tasks.
- Overall Musical Interpretation: Students will apply technical skills in context, demonstrating musicality through expression, phrasing, dynamics, memorisation, tempo and stylistic understanding, in either performance or compositional works.

2 Repertoire Assessment

Assessment Type

Practical Assessment

Task Description

This repertoire assessment evaluates students' practical study of repertoire for instrumentalists or vocalists, or the development of a composition portfolio for composers. This task focuses on the acquisition of performance skills, interpretation, musicianship, or composition techniques in the presentation of either a performance or portfolio of works. Instrumentalists and vocalists are required to perform a repertoire assessment from a defined list of pieces, relative to each instrument and genre. Composers develop a portfolio of works of varying styles and specifications. The curriculum for this assessment is individualised and planned by the tutor, in consultation with the unit coordinator, with approved repertoire lists communicated individually to each student.

Detailed instructions regarding length, number of works studied and submission instructions are available on the unit Moodle site.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
