OCCT11002 Introduction to Occupational Therapy Theory and Practice

Term 1 - 2026

Profile information current as at 23/01/2025 01:13 pm

All details in this unit profile for OCCT11002 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit will provide you with a clear understanding of the fundamental theoretical frameworks that guide occupational therapy practice. An historical overview of the profession will be presented so that you can contrast the changes and plot the evolution of occupational therapy practice from the profession's foundations to the present day. The practical application of occupational theory as it drives contemporary occupational therapy practice will be introduced via one key occupational therapy practice model. You will be introduced to the regulatory and professional bodies guiding ethical occupational therapy practice locally and internationally. Skill development will focus on the acquisition of qualitative and quantitative information gathering techniques including interviewing and the application of standardised and non-standardised assessments.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE comments, informal student feedback, unit coordinator reflections.

Feedback

Presentation of content was often rushed, students suggested more time was needed for practical tasks.

Recommendation

It is recommended that workshop length is increased in 2025 to enable more time to be spent on practical tasks and prevent rushing of content.

Feedback from SUTE comments

Feedback

Some students stated that they had limited understanding of how the content linked to occupational therapy practice.

Recommendation

It is recommended that more practical examples of occupational therapy practice be incorporated into teaching content, e.g., presentations from practicing clinicians.

Feedback from SUTE comments, informal student feedback, educator observations.

Feedback

Some students found it difficult to engage with content delivered primarily from a remote campus.

Recommendation

It is recommended that teaching and leading classes be more evenly divided between educators to ensure maximum engagement from all students, regardless of campus location.
