Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE Feedback

Feedback

Students reported that they liked the teaching format and found the lectures and guidance invaluable to their learning journey.

Recommendation

It is recommended to keep the teaching format for the next offering as students continue to enjoy the delivery of this unit which introduces them to their OHS profession.

Feedback

Some students reported that they struggled to understand what was required for the assessments and had to reach out for more clarification.

Recommendation

It is recommended to provide some exemplars for students for their assessments in order to help with their understanding of the assessment requirements. It is also recommended to continue to encourage students to reach out if they are having any issues in understanding their assessment requirements.
