General Information

Overview

Throughout the Transition to Paramedic Practice and Professionalism unit, you will acquire the requisite knowledge and skills to assist with your evolution to beginner practitioner and a Registered Paramedic. This unit will explore the requirements for registration, and continuing professional development, as a paramedic in Australia. You will explore and further develop your professional and therapeutic communication skills with a focus on receiving and delivering constructive feedback, in preparation for a graduate internship and future mentoring opportunities. Additionally, you will explore and enhance positive professional habits to strengthen individual resilience while promoting good physical and psychological health, integral to an effective career in paramedicine.
