Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Self-reflection

Feedback

Updating the marking rubric to include additional details relating to the task description for the literature review.

Recommendation

We recommend updating the literature review marking rubric for the next offering of the unit. This enhancement will help students better understand the expectations and requirements for their review, particularly regarding the number of peer-reviewed articles that need to be included.
