

PSYC11009 Fundamentals of Psychology 2: Psychological Literacy Term 2 - 2024

Profile information current as at 30/06/2024 06:49 am

All details in this unit profile for PSYC11009 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit you will be introduced to the concept of psychological literacy, which explores the use of psychological science to help solve problems faced by humans in their everyday lives. Psychological literacy encapsulates the graduate attributes that you will acquire through completing an undergraduate degree in psychology, including discipline knowledge, acting ethically, understanding and fostering respect for diversity, problem solving skills, communicating effectively, and being insightful and reflective about one's own and others' behaviour. Thus, in this unit, you will develop your psychological literacy by learning how to take the primary principles, theories and knowledge you have learned in PSYC11010 and apply these to a range of real-world contexts at a personal, professional, and societal level.

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Class and Assessment Overview

Recommended Student Time Commitment

Each 6-credit Undergraduate unit at CQUniversity requires an overall time commitment of an average of 12.5 hours of study per week, making a total of 150 hours for the unit.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

You may wish to view these policies:

- Grades and Results Policy

This list is not an exhaustive list of all University policies. The full list of University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback via email and Q&A forum

Feedback

Students encountered technical difficulties in uploading videos for Assessment 3 - Dragon's Den Pitch. Options included both uploading to Moodle directly and to Echo360.

Recommendation

Provide written instructions to support students to upload video assessments including contact details for the Technology and Services Assistance Centre (TASAC) if they encounter problems.

Feedback from Student feedback during lectures

Feedback

Students particularly appreciated those lectures that raised awareness regarding career paths and research areas that they had previously been unaware of.

Recommendation

Consider incorporating potential career and research options relevant to the topic areas of each of the lectures to demonstrate the wide range of options provided to psychology graduates.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Explain relevant concepts, theories and principles to specific aspects of human behaviour.
2. Apply principles of psychological literacy to personal, professional and social issues in real-world scenarios.
3. Communicate ideas effectively in oral and written form.

This unit addresses Foundational Competencies as specified by the Australian Psychology Accreditation Council (APAC).

The unit specifically aligns to the following APAC graduate competencies:

- 1.1 Comprehend and apply a broad and coherent body of knowledge of psychology, with depth of understanding of underlying principles, theories and concepts in the discipline, using a scientific approach, including the following topics:
 - i. the history and philosophy underpinning the science of psychology and the social, cultural, historical and professional influences on the practice of psychology;
 - ii. individual differences in capacity, behaviour and personality;

Assessment Tasks

1 WEEKLY ONLINE QUIZZES

Assessment Type

Online Quiz(zes)

Task Description

Objectives

The weekly quiz questions will provide you with the opportunity to demonstrate ongoing engagement with the unit, as well as both foundational and critical knowledge of the weekly topic. Participation will further illustrate your ability to communicate an understanding of psychological concepts in an objective manner.

Overview

From Week 1 through to Week 12 a set of questions, based on the material studied during that week, will be posted in the Weekly Topic Tile on Moodle. The number and format of questions will vary each week, including multiple-choice, drag-and-drop, and matching questions.

There will be 4 marks available each week over the 12 teaching weeks with the 10 best weekly quiz scores contributing to the total assessment score. A maximum of 40 marks can therefore be obtained for the overall assessment. Each set of questions will be available for one week only.

Submission

Online

Submission Instructions

Complete each weekly quiz via the PSYC11009 Moodle site.

Learning Outcomes Assessed

- Explain relevant concepts, theories and principles to specific aspects of human behaviour.
- Apply principles of psychological literacy to personal, professional and social issues in real-world scenarios.

2 Written Assessment

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Objectives

The aim of this written assessment task is to research and identify a possible solution to a real-world scenario. This task will also help you to develop the knowledge base required to complete Assessment 3: Dragons' Den Pitch. Through short answer responses, you will demonstrate your written communication skills and your ability to understand and apply principles of psychological literacy.

Overview

In Week 1, a list of real-world scenarios will be provided on Moodle. You will select one of these scenarios to focus on for both Assessment 2: Written Assessment and Assessment 3: Dragons' Den Pitch (Note: Both Assessment 2 and Assessment 3 must focus on the same topic).

You will be required to identify a possible solution to your chosen real-world scenario. The written assessment should comprise the following four sections: (1) Title; (2) Summary of issue/literature review; (3) Proposed solution; (4) Significance of proposed solution. The written assessment length is 750 (minimum) to 1000 (maximum) words. Further task details will be available from the Assessment 2 Tile on Moodle and discussed during class lectures.

Assessment Due Date

Week 6 Monday (19 Aug 2024) 9:00 am AEST

Return Date to Students

Week 8 Monday (2 Sept 2024)

Feedback and grades will be released via Moodle approximately 2-3 weeks after submission.

Weighting

30%

Assessment Criteria

The following aspects of the written assessment will be marked using a rubric that provides detailed criteria for performance at each grade level. The marking rubric will be available from the Assessment Tile on Moodle.

The written assessment will receive a total mark out of 30 and has an overall weighting of 30%.

- Title (1 mark)
- Summary of issue/literature review (8 marks)
- Proposed solution (8 marks)
- Significance of solution (8 marks)
- Quality of written communication skills, presentation style and adherence to word count (3 marks)
- Adherence to APA (7th ed.) referencing style (2 marks)

Learning Outcomes Assessed

- Explain relevant concepts, theories and principles to specific aspects of human behaviour.
- Communicate ideas effectively in oral and written form.

3 Dragon's Den Pitch

Assessment Type

Presentation

Task DescriptionObjectives

This oral presentation task will provide you with an opportunity to deliver a 'Dragons' Den-style pitch. You will build on the work you submitted in Assessment 2: Written Assessment, to present a convincing 'pitch' outlining your proposed solution to your chosen real-world scenario. This assessment will allow you to demonstrate and refine your oral communication skills to convey information clearly to a general audience.

Overview

In Week 1, a list of real-world scenarios will be provided on Moodle that will relate to topics discussed during lectures in this unit. You will select one of these scenarios to focus on for both Assessment 2: Written Assessment and Assessment 3: Dragons' Den Pitch (Note: Both Assessment 2 and Assessment 3 must focus on the same topic). A Dragons' Den pitch typically aims to convince an investor to support a project. The goal for this assessment is to convince a general audience that the solution you have proposed for your chosen real-world scenario is feasible, helpful, and worth supporting.

You will use and build on the information and knowledge gained from Assessment 2: Written Assessment to develop and deliver a 3 to 5-minute pitch. The presentation should include a 1x PowerPoint slide with 6-8 bullet points, using 20-point font, as a visual aid to support you during the presentation.

The oral presentation should be recorded and saved in .MP4 format. Zoom is usually the most efficient and compact recording method. Because of the limited allowable file size in Moodle (100 MB), please use CQUniversity's ECHO360 system to upload your video by following these instructions:

<https://moodle.cqu.edu.au/mod/page/view.php?id=3340315&forceview=1>

You will also be required to prepare a written reflection on your experience completing the Dragons' Den Pitch. The reflection should be 200 (minimum) to 250 (maximum) words.

Further task details will be available from the Assessment 3 Tile on Moodle and discussed during class.

Assessment Due Date

Week 12 Monday (30 Sept 2024) 9:00 am AEST

Return Date to Students

Exam Week Monday (14 Oct 2024)

Feedback and grades will be released via Moodle approximately 2-3 weeks after submission.

Weighting

30%

Assessment Criteria

The following aspects of the presentation will be marked using a rubric that provides detailed criteria for performance. The marking rubric will be available from the Assessment Tile on Moodle .

The presentation will receive a total mark out of 30 and has an overall weighting of 30%.

- Presentation skills (5 marks)
- Knowledge base (5 marks)
- Structure and flow (5 marks)
- Creativity in pitch delivery (5 marks)
- Overall success of the pitch (3 marks)
- Adherence to allocated time (2 marks)
- Reflection (5 marks)

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
