General Information

Overview

This unit is designed to help you, as a university student studying psychology, to build a set of evidence-based strategies to prepare you for your academic and professional life. You will receive practical instruction on how to effectively study at university; develop your written and oral communication skills; work effectively in groups; navigate the scientific literature; and apply American Psychological Association (APA) referencing conventions. Your communication, teamwork and research skills will be utilised in the design and preparation of a group presentation. You will also be introduced to career pathways in psychology-related disciplines, and given insight into the personal skills, capabilities and knowledge relevant to a career in psychology. The creation of a career portfolio will help you identify and market the transferable knowledge and skills that you will acquire throughout your degree.

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Deputy Dean (Learning and Teaching) Office

Feedback

Including a must-pass grade of 60% for Assessment 2 needs to be amended due to this unit being a first year, first term unit.

Recommendation

Reduce the pass rate for Assessment 2 to 25/50 (50%).

Feedback from Deputy Dean (Learning and Teaching) Office

The assessments for this unit are all due at the end of the term and should be more evenly distributed.

Recommendation

Bring forward the due date for Assessment 3 (e-portfolio) from week 13 to week 5. This will require an adjustment to the schedule and content relating to portfolios.

Feedback from Student feedback, unit coordinator reflection, Deputy Dean (Learning and Teaching) Office

Feedback

Allocating groups after the census date (week 4) does not allow enough time for groups to complete their task.

Recommendation

Allocate groups by the end of week 2 of the term. This will require an adjustment to the schedule and content relating to groupwork.
