Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student Unit and Teaching Evaluation report.

Feedback

It was suggested that the marking criteria could be more comprehensive and provide clearer guidance for students.

Recommendation

Develop a more detailed marking criteria document and enhance the grading rubric to include more specific descriptors for each performance level.

Feedback from Student feedback during lectures.

Students enjoyed discussions about real-world cases that are presented during weekly lectures, and some stated this helped them understand the content.

Recommendation

Continue to present real-world cases during weekly lectures.
