General Information

Overview

This unit is intended to provide you with knowledge and skill acquisition at Australian Psychology Accreditation Council (APAC) Accreditation Standards Level 3, which represents professional and specialised areas of practice competencies necessary for working as a psychologist. Specifically, this unit aims to build your competency in theoretically informed selection, administration, interpretation, and integration of standardised psychological testing into broader assessment of cognition, intelligence, and learning. You will build knowledge and skills specific to culturally-responsive reflective practice approaches to psychological assessment.

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses
Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE Unit comments

Feedback
A number of students felt the marking criteria were confusing and could be improved.

Recommendation
The marking criteria and marking rubrics will be revised and updated by the unit coordinator.

Feedback from SUTE Unit comments

Feedback
The dates for one assessment needed to be adjusted, as a result of issues with students' access to Q-Interactive software, which caused stress for students.

Recommendation
The Unit Coordinator and the Head of Course for the Master of Professional Psychology will start the process for students' access to Q-Interactive after their acceptance into the program (both MPP and MCP). This will facilitate students getting access to the software so that they can complete their assessment by the due date.
