SOWK11016 Human Services and the Law

Term 2 - 2024

Profile information current as at 19/05/2024 03:34 am

All details in this unit profile for SOWK11016 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will examine the relationship between human services and the legal context, and develop an understanding of the importance of integrating knowledge of legal systems and processes with human services practice and professional ethics. You will be introduced to the origins of the statutory contexts for human service work in Australia, and to the role which human service practitioners are required to play within these settings. Particular statutory areas are explored in some detail. This unit has a minimum grade requirement for assessments.

Assessment Overview

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student evaluation

Two lectures were difficult to engage with.

Recommendation

Review lectures to identify ways to increase student engagement.

Feedback from Student evaluation

Feedback

The unit Moodle site was easy to navigate, and there was a great range of resources. I was surprised at my enjoyment of this subject.

Recommendation

Retain the Moodle site format and the interactive elements of Assessments 1 and 2, and continually review and update unit resources.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Explain the origins of the statutory frameworks within which human service workers practice
2. Demonstrate the difference between criminal and civil statutory processes and law
3. Differentiate between the discrete jurisdictions within statutory systems with reference to the roles which human service workers are required to undertake
4. Explain how statutory systems impact on the work of human services workers, clients, organisations and the community
5. Explain the interaction of statutory systems and processes with professional codes of ethics in human service practice.
