General Information

Overview

In this unit you will be offered a range of learning opportunities to engage with key theories that have informed professional social work practice. This unit presents both structural and personal theories, and how these can be integrated for professional practice, such as working with change and complexity. Structural theories include post modernism, critical theory and ecological perspectives; personal theories include psychological approaches, humanism, grief, loss and trauma-informed practice. This unit also explores change models and how these inform the development of assessment and intervention strategies. You will engage in the process of critical reflection and exploring your values and beliefs, in order to develop an emerging ethical theoretical framework for your professional social work practice.

Assessment Tasks

1 Social Work Theory Essay

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Aim

The aim of this assessment is for you to explore the relationship between theory and social work practice, that is, why and how theory informs practice. Harms and Connolly (2023) observe that social workers draw on various theoretical perspectives to inform their practice and understand the diverse settings in which they work. In this assessment, you will discuss and compare your knowledge of two theories and examine their relationship to social work practice.

Instructions

You are writing an academic essay on social work theory and practice; you are required to compare two theories and examine why theories are used in social work practice and how they inform social work interventions.

In your essay, you will choose two theories covered in weeks 3 -11: systems theory, psychodynamic and attachment theory, person-centred, problem-solving and task-centred, crisis intervention and trauma-informed practice, cognitive behavioural therapy, motivational interviewing, strengths and solution-focused and or narrative practice.

Your comparative analysis should:

- Compare and contrast the similarities and differences between the two theories, including their core tenets, origin, and purpose, and how they inform social work intervention.
- Summarise the theories' key critiques, comparing their main limitations and strengths and how this knowledge can inform their use in social work practice. For instance, are the theories widely used or contradicted for a particular practice area, and why?
- Referring to the AASW Code of Ethics (2020), compare the relevance and suitability of the theories to social work values and ethics.
- Compare and evaluate the theories's capacity to respond appropriately to diverse service users and practice contexts.

Word Limit

1800 words

You must remain within 10% of the word limit. The word count is considered from the first word of the introduction to the conclusion's last word. It excludes the cover page and reference list. It includes in-text references and direct quotations.

Penalties will apply for late submissions as per CQUniversity's late submission procedure.

Literature and references

Use at least eight contemporary references (<10 years) to support your discussion in this assessment. You may also use seminal scholarly literature where relevant. Suitable references include peer-reviewed journal articles, textbooks, and credible websites. When sourcing information, consider the five elements of a quality reference: currency, authority, relevance, objectivity, and coverage. Grey literature from the internet must be from reputable websites such as government, university, or peak national bodies, such as the Australian Association of Social Workers.

Requirements

- Use a conventional and legible size 12 font, such as Times New Roman or Arial, with 1.5 or double line spacing and 2.54cm page margins (standard pre-set margin in Microsoft Word).
- Include a title page including details of the unit code and name, unit coordinator, assessment number and word count.
- Include page numbers on each page in a footer.
- Write in the third-person perspective.
- Use formal academic language.
- Use the seventh edition American Psychological Association (APA) referencing style. The CQUniversity Academic Learning Centre has an online APA Referencing Style Guide.

Generative AI

Generative artificial intelligence (Gen-AI) includes a range of computer programs that use data sets and computer-generated information to create new content. For this assessment, you may use Gen-AI to help you understand the question, explain research concepts, and check that references are in the correct format. If you use Gen-AI, you should include a statement that declares that you have used Gen-AI and how you have used Gen-AI.

You should not use Gen-AI to create or critically analyse the content or write or rewrite any part of your assessment.

You should know that Gen-AI output can be incorrect and include fictitious references and sources.

Resources

- You can support your argument using unit-provided materials and other credible sources (e.g., journal articles and books). The quality and credibility of your sources are essential.
- We recommend you access your discipline-specific library guide: the Social Work and Community Services Guide.
- For information on academic communication, please go to the Academic Learning Centre Moodle site. The Academic Communication section has many helpful resources, including information for students with English as a second language.
- Submit a draft before the due date to review your Turnitin Similarity Score before making a final submission. Instructions are available here.

Submission

Submit your assessment in Microsoft Word via the assessment submission area on the unit Moodle site.

2 Theory and Practice PowerPoint Presentation

Assessment Type

Presentation and Written Assessment

Task Description

Aim

This assessment aims to demonstrate your ability to integrate theory and practice. Social work draws on a range of theories to explain and describe diverse human experiences and effect social change. You will analyse two theories/models and apply them to a case study to build your knowledge of how theory informs social work practice.

Instructions

You will be provided with a case study under the Assessment tile on the unit Moodle site to demonstrate your ability to apply theory to practice. The case study will outline the service user's presenting circumstances and background information. In a 10-minute audiovisual (AV) PowerPoint presentation, you are to choose two theories/approaches you consider the most appropriate to understand and respond to the case study as a social worker. In this assessment, position yourself as a social work student in training (SWIT) delivering a presentation to peers.

Your PowerPoint presentation should:

1. Provide an overview of the theories/models chosen for social work practice.
2. Explain why the chosen theories/models are the most appropriate to this case study and social work practice in this context.
3. Discuss how you, as a social worker, would apply these theories/models in working with the service user/client. (How does the theory help you to explain and respond to the situation?) Provide examples of applying the chosen theories to the case study.
4. Discuss the challenges for social workers using the theories/models in the case study and context.
5. Examine the importance of the chosen theories/models to you and how this might influence your developing social work identity and professional practice framework. Identify the strategies you will utilise to consider the suitability of various theoretical perspectives to diverse service users, practice contexts, and social work values and ethics.

Literature and references

Use at least ten contemporary references (<10 years) in this assessment to support your discussion. You may also use seminal scholarly literature where relevant. Suitable references include peer-reviewed journal articles, textbooks, and credible websites. When sourcing information, consider the five elements of a quality reference: currency, authority, relevance, objectivity, and coverage. Grey literature from the internet must be from reputable websites such as government, university, or peak national bodies, such as the Australian Association of Social Workers.

Presentation Requirements

- The AV PowerPoint Presentation will be 10 minutes in length. Like essay word limits, penalties for going under and over 10% of the allocated time will be applied.
- You are positioned as a SWIT presenting to your peers. Be aware of your voice and the pace of the presentation. Practice the presentation and time yourself before submitting it on Moodle. An engaging presentation will discuss the key points rather than just reading from the PowerPoint slides.
- The PowerPoint must be referenced, and a reference list slide should be included.
- The presentation can be recorded in PowerPoint.
- Additional resources on designing, delivering and submitting a PowerPoint presentation will be provided on the unit Moodle site.
- Use the seventh edition American Psychological Association (APA) referencing style. The CQUniversity Academic Learning Centre has an online APA Referencing Style Guide.

Resources

- You can reference your argument with unit-provided materials and other credible sources (e.g., journal articles and books). The quality and credibility of your sources are important.
- We recommend you access your discipline-specific library guide: the Social Work and Community Services Guide.
- For information on academic communication, please go to the Academic Learning Centre Moodle site. The Academic Communication section has many helpful resources, including information for students with English as a second language.
- Submit a draft before the due date to review your Turnitin Similarity Score before making a final submission. Instructions are available here.

Generative AI

Generative artificial intelligence (Gen-AI) includes a range of computer programs that use data sets and computer-generated information to create new content. For this assessment, you may use Gen-AI to help you understand the question, explain research concepts, and check that references are in the correct format. If you use Gen-AI, you should include a statement that declares that you have used Gen-AI and how you have used Gen-AI.

You should not use Gen-AI to create or critically analyse the content or to write or rewrite any part of your assessment.

You should know that Gen-AI output can be incorrect and include fictitious references and sources.

Submission

In the submission area on Moodle, upload your AV PowerPoint presentation recording by choosing the Echo360 tab and a copy of the PowerPoint without the video embedded. Students are advised to upload their recording via Echo 360 to avoid problems associated with media file size and access. The unit Moodle Assessment tile includes instructions on submitting video assessments using Echo 360:

Alternatively, you can submit a coversheet with a link to your OneDrive file and a copy of your PowerPoint. All students have access to OneDrive through CQU and should save their AV in OneDrive. If you choose this option, please ensure that this link is set to 'accessible to anyone with the link.'

If you are unsure how to do this after viewing the resources, seek support from TaSAC. Further instructions will be explained in an online Zoom session.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?
