Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE data

I learned so much in this course! I spent so much time doing extra study and research because the further the course went on, the less I realised I knew.

Recommendation

Continue to maintain the focus on enhancing critical thinking and engagement around issues related to culturally humility and safety in social work practice

I truly appreciate the kindness, compassion and support I received. It made me really thankful to be at this uni, learning from these wonderful teachers who care about me genuinely as a person.

Recommendation

Continue to maintain a student-centered approach to teaching and learning.

Feedback from SUTE data

Feedback

This unit is challenging. I would appreciate more guidance and assistance with assessments.

Recommendation

While the unit is designed to challenge the students' thinking around issues related to cross-cultural practice, the unit will continue to offer opportunities for students to explore and unpack these themes. Assessment-focused ZOOM sessions will continue to be delivered alongside with opportunities for students to consult with the unit coordinator when uncertain around assessment task requirements.
