General Information

Overview

Social policy is one of seven methods of change used in social work practice. This unit explores the historical, political and normative dimensions of social policy and policy-making in Australia and the international context. You will explore concepts such as the welfare state and neo-liberalism and you will examine and critically analyse social policy that is relevant to human service contexts.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student and staff feedback

There were issues related to a late availability of the unit. This impacted student access to resources and learning materials.

Recommendation

The staffing issues have been addressed. Following a review of the curriculum, adjustments and improvements should be made to address resource issues.

Feedback

There were problems with the text book and delays with orders

Recommendation

These issues have been addressed as staffing allocated and library resources ordered in a timely manner.
