SPCH13010 Swallowing and Feeding Across the Lifespan

Term 1 - 2026

Profile information current as at 23/01/2025 01:35 pm

All details in this unit profile for SPCH13010 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will learn about the development of feeding and the progression of swallowing across the lifespan. You will advance your competency in the assessment, analysis, planning and treatment of swallowing and feeding difficulties across the lifespan. You will consider the aetiology, diagnosis and management of swallowing and feeding in the context of the International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health (ICF) framework. Evidence based practice will provide the foundation for your learning in all stages of diagnosis and management.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student evaluations and unit coordinator reflection

Feedback

Recorded lectures and online activities should be posted at least 1 week prior to tutorial.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the unit coordinator ensure all recorded lectures and online activities are available at least 1 week prior to tutorial.

Feedback from Student evaluations

Feedback

Unit requirements were not clear.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the unit coordinator review the task descriptions and rubrics for all assessments, as well as individual quiz questions, and identify any areas where clarity could be further improved.

Feedback from Unit coordinator reflection

Feedback

Adding a third assessment was effective in engaging multiple learning styles and reducing the high stakes nature of two larger assessments.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the unit coordinator retain 3 assessments (quiz, case study, OSCE).
