The focus of the project will be in providing practical experience in the invention, composition and revision of a writing project designated as either professional or creative writing. You will be expected to produce work of a publishable standard, and will be encouraged to find a print or online publication outlet - journal, magazine, newspaper - and submit your project for consideration. You will be expected to reflect on your project and to demonstrate, through a weblog, knowledge of how professional and creative writing works. You will demonstrate advanced writing skills, as well as the ability to collect, analyse, organize and present ideas and information in creative and/ or professional ways.

Assessment Overview

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback: unit evaluation responses

Feedback

Provide video lectures

Recommendation

Produce video content for students who cannot make live zoom sessions. A recorded lecture on research and writing and another on writing about writing may be a good place to start.

Feedback from Student feedback: in class

Assessment Item 2: Reflection Journal and Blog detracts from the creative process because reflection becomes the weekly focus rather than the writing of the project itself.

Recommendation

Change due dates so critical reflection follows submission of the final artefact and redesign the blog as an informal playful experimental space.

Feedback from Staff reflection

Students require guidance on research and its vital importance to writing projects

Recommendation

Provide a recorded lecture on research and writing
